I plan to request a federal student loans for the 2025-2026 and I must provide ...

- A Physician's Certification (must be an M.D. or D.O.)
 - on letter head with contact information
 - a wet signature certifying that you, the patient...
 - Ø Have the ability to engage in Substantial Gainful Activity (as defined by the Social Security Administration), and
 - Ø Understand that the new loan(s) can not later be discharged for any present impairment
 - Unless your condition deteriorates so that you (the patient) are again totally and permanently disabled.

Student/Borrower Statement

I confirm that I previously had my federal student loans discharged because of a total and permanent disability. Here is what I understand about the new loans I receive:

- If I request a new loan during the 3-year post discharge monitoring period or the conditional discharge period, I must resume payment on the old loan(s) and provide proof of payment, before receipt of the new loan. If my loan is in default upon reinstatement, I must make satisfactory repayment arrangements before I can receive a new loan.
- If I want to request a new loan, I must provide the Physicians Certification listed above.
- I must repay any new federal student loans in full, and they cannot be discharged in the future based on any disabilities I have when I take out the loan, unless my condition worsens significantly according to my doctor.
